

Entry Information – 12/14/2011

Due to the large number of applications that have been received and the limited field, it is important that all interested competitors register and submit payment as soon as possible.

Additionally, all applications received from competitors from this point forward will receive a letter of declination or be put on hold until further notified.

We appreciate your patience as the race committee determines the best plan moving forward with the large number of applicants.